

Blessed Charles de Foucauld

1858 – 1916

Blessed Father Charles de Foucauld, in one of his diaries, writes regarding the Eucharist: “Since Jesus is always with us in the Holy Eucharist, we are always with Him, and we keep Him company at the feet of the tabernacle; God is there, so what will we go to seek elsewhere? All the rest, images, relics, pilgrimages, and books, are worthy of great veneration, but in the Holy Eucharist, there is Jesus, there is all Jesus!”

